The Recent Assault with Intent to Kill. In our issue of yesterday we gave an account of an assault with intent to kill, that took place near the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway Depot. The defendants, John Lynch and Daniel Lavery, were before the Police Court yesterday morning, when the plaintiff, John Harris, detailed the circumstances as related by us. The parties were fined $10 and costs each, while Lynch was also sent to the dungeon for ten days, the charge having been changed to one of simple charge baving been changed to one of simple assault and battery.

Schwartz was about thirty years of age, and leaves a wife and eight children.

ARREST OF DETECTIVE POLICE OFFICERS.—
A couple of men named Henry Applegate and John Lewis, were arrested yesterday by Officer Colby and lodged in the station-house, upon the charge of representing themselves as detective police officers. We have often heard that desperate men have gone about the country indiscriminately personating newspaper reporters—indeed we know an instance in which a man stopped at one of our first-class hotels gratis for several days, by means of this most despicable of false pretenses—but we never knew a case before where any one represented himself as a police officer. The men, we believe, really belong where any one represented himself as a police officer. The men, we believe, really belong to the Independent Police; and we, therefore, congratulate our readers upon the fact of this arrest. There is some hope for a city where the police arrest each other, and if the example of Mr. Colby is only carried a little further, we may feel assured that the police force have at length determined to do their dut.

FINALE OF THE LATE RIOT ON JACKSON HILL. We have already related the circumstances onnected with a riot on Jackson Hill; how connected with a riot on Jackson Hill; how a young man and woman, amorously inclined, were surprised while in a very delicate situation, and lectured upon morality; how the male became indignant, left off his Aphroditean avocation, called on Mars to bear witness to his wrongs, and then assaulted the person who had disturbed his Cytherean devotions with a slung-shot; how his antagonist ceased preaching and "went in rough," disarmed the pugilistic lover and beat him severely; and how he then assembled his friends and proceeded to demotish the furniture in the house of the modern "Mawworm."

MITCHEST COLUMN

Called Court.—Judge Hilton beid a called Court to hear an application for the discharge of Daniel Sullivan, committed from the Police Court, in default of $2,500 bail, toanswer a charge of mabbing two negroes, named Samuel Harris and Richard Corbin, on the Fourth of July. The colored men went into a coffee-house on Cherry-alley, and drank some beer. Several white men then came, and, according to the statement of the colored men, one of the white men asked Corbin to shake hands, which the latter refused, on the ground that he "never shook hands with white men unless be knew them." The colored men cleared out as soon as they could, and were followed by one of the other party, who drew a knife and first stabbed Corbin on the shoulder, and subsequently cut Harris in the same place. This was the statement of the negroes. Harris, in answer to a question whether he was drunk, replied: "No;" that he had only drank a little beer. When Corbin was asked if he was sober, he said he was "as sober as a man ought to be." Other witnesses, however, testified that he was drunk, and used insulting language.

Sullivan was proved to be one of the party of white men present on the occasion, but was not identified at the present investigation as the individual who committed the offense charged; and it was alleged that the only witness who had testified at the former trial that he was guilty, had been himself arrested on the same charge.

Sullivan proved a good character.
The Court thought there was no testimony sufficient to establish the guilt of the accused; but thought the safest course would be to reduce the bail. A bond in the sum of $500 was then accepted, and the party was released.

Thomas Connelly, convicted of mau-slaughter, was admitted to bail by Judge Collins, in the sum of $3,000, pending the de-cision of a motion for a new trial.

cision of a motion for a new trial.

Homicide at a Hall is St. Bernard-Man Stabbed to the Heart in a Fight.

A picnic party that visited Ludlow's Grove, day before yesterday when evening came on, retired to a hall, in St. Bernard, a few miles from the city, in Millcreek Township, for the purpose of spending the evening in dancing. About ten o'clock a difficulty between a couple of men, named R. H. Wheeler and Heary Skillman, who were members of the company, occurred in the street, near the hall, and the latter was found shortly afterward in a moribund condition, having received three wounds from a knife in the hands of his antagonist.

How the quarrel originated is not known, nor could the Coroner learn by the most searching investigation. Skillman, however, upon being removed to the house, after the application of proper restoratives, revived sufficiently to state in presence of a Justice of the Peace and a man named D. J. Walker, that he hald been stabbed by Wheeler, and shortly afterward died.

The wound that caused his death penetrated his hody about an inch below and shortly afterward died.

The wound that caused his death penetrated his body about an inch below and to the left of the left nipple, passing through the right auricle of the heart into the right lung. He also had another severe wound in the right side of the abdomen, and still another in the right arm.

Coroner Carey held an inquest upon the body, which resulted in a verdict to the effect that the deceased came to his death in consequence of wounds received from a knife in the hands of R. H. Wheeler.

Wheeler was subsequently arrested and Wheeler was subsequently arrested and taken before Justice Schlee, who committed him to Jall to await a trial before the next term of the Criminal Court upon a charge of murder. The deceased was about twenty-six years of age, and leaves a wife but no children.

City Council.—Special Session Last Night.—The Council met at the usual hour last night, President Torrence in the Chair. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Mr. Johnson, from the Special Committee to whom the subject of damages in the Fourth Ward was referred, submitted a report in favor of paying damages to various parties, which was laid on the table, and made the special order for next Wednesday night.

Mr. Noble presented a resolution directing the construction of a culvert on Washington-street, one-third of the expenses to be home by the city and other parties. Adopted.

A communication was received from the City Civil Engineer, recommonding the con-City Civil Engineer, recommending the con-struction of a sewer under Liberty-street, m Broadway to Millcreek, at a cost o 54,800, which was referred to the Committee on Sewers.

The remainder of the session was occupied in passing ordinances and resolutions rela-tive to improvement of streets. Adjourned.

THE CONCERTY ESTRUDAY AFTEROOON.—The concert at the First Orthodox Congregational Church, yesterday afternoon, although not so largely attended as we could have wished. iargely attended as we could have wished, was in every respect a musical success. Mr. Heller played with wonderful effect, and his audience sat spell-bound, entranced, while the delicious waves of harmony encompassed it on every side. His ability, and the object of the entertaiument, should have received a fuller house; but the Home of the Friendless has doubtless netted a considerable sum, as, we understand a number of tickets were sold. we understand, a number of tickets were sold that were not taken at the door. Altogether, the affair was an auricular banquet, which those who participated in it will not soon for-get, and we doubt not would be glad to have repeated.

BENEFIT OF ROBERT HELLER.—The fare-well and indeed sole benefit of Mr. Heller, takes place this evening, at Wood's Theater. The large number of friends which the The large number of friends which the benevoleace and gentlemanly bearing of the beneficiary have won him, will, in all probability insure him an overflowing house, though not greater than his skill as a prestigiator, and his amiable qualities as a man deserve. Mr. Heller leaves on Tuesday for Lexington, where we doubt not he will be as eagerly welcomed and as successful as he has been here. His benefit this evening should be a bumper.

should be a bumper. Case or Midday Rosseny .- Three men Cass of Midday Robbers.—Three men named Rankin Hathway, and Joseph and John Wright, were yesterday arrested for breaking into a room in the International Hotel, and robbing a trunk belonging to one of the boarders of a considerable amount of money, a variety of valuable clothing, and a number of railroad ticketa. They were arrested and lodged in the Hammond-street Station-house, when a portion of the property was found on their persons. They will be examined this morning before Judge Lowe.

RAILBOAD ACCIDENT.—About noon yesterday, the accommodation train on the Marietta and Cincinnati Railway, ran over an embaukment at Spencer Station. The engine and baggage-car were badly damaged, and the messenger of Adams's Express Company, the new-boy and telegraph operator were slightly injured. Apart from the detention of the train and that which we have named above no damage was sustained by named above, no damage was sustained by the accident.

The Quadrangular Trot To-Day.—A trot between "A. J. Riddle," "Eliza," "John" and "Harry," four well-matched mags, will take place to-day over the Cincinnati Trotting Park, for a purse and stake of $125, mile heats, best three in five, to harness. Cars will leave the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railway Depot, for the course at 2:30 and 3:50 P. M.

ARREST OF AN ALLEGED HORSE TRIPE,—A man mamed Francis Hoffman was arrested yesterday and lodged in the Ninth-street Station-house, upon a charge of stealing a horse. Who the animal belonged to, where it was stolen, or where or when sold, we could not learn, but presume these facts will be developed this morning before Judge Lowe. MEETING OF THE LANDLORDS' ASSOCIATION The Landlords' Association of this city will hold its regular monthly meeting this evening, at the Henric House, at eight o'clock, A full attendance is requested, as business of Arricula.—Moses McLellan, Louisville; Clipper, Richard Condy, Forest Goesta Madison, Magnotia, Maya-idie, Dunistih, Noville; Ross Pouglas, Mouphit, Representation of the Condy of the Condy of Sandry Furest Queen, Madison, Section, 1987.

COVINGTON NEWS.

MISCHLEANEOUTS

A BRILLIANT EFFURION.—The following paragraph appeared among the Covington news, in yesterday evening's Times:

Senious Accidentally shot in the right wrist, night before last, at a saloon on Sixthstreet, near Washington, by a friend, who was shooting at a target. The wound, though severe, is not dangerous.

DESCOVERY OF STOLEN GOODS.—Day before vesterday Officer Reese discovered a large quantity of stolen goods, consisting of clothes, silks, &c., on the premises of a man named Edward Hopkins, who resides in West Covington, Both Hopkins and his wife were arrested, and will be examined before Justices Howard and Eggleston, on Monday next.

As Allegen Outrage Upon Two ChilDeen.—An Irishman named Joseph Brooks, was yesterday arrested and brought before Mayor Hawkins, on a charge of violating the persons of two little daughters of Mr. John Bradley, aged respectively seven and nine years. If the stories told by the girls are true—and there is no doubt but they are—it was one of the greatest outrages ever perpetrated in this city. Brooks was held over in the sum of $500 for his appearance at the next term of the Circuit Court, and committed to jail in default.

Heenaniana—The Beulelu Boy's Earnings in England, and his Future Course in this Country.

A New York paper, of late date, professing to speak by the card, observes:

Heenan has arranged to give a few sparring exhibitions in the cities of New York, Philadelphia and Boston, perhaps in Baltimore, Cincinnati and Washington, and possibly in New Orleans, and hopes to realize therafrom net profits sufficient to give him a snug little sum of interest-money, and thus provide against the proverbial "rainy day." In these exhibitions, the first of which will be given in this city, on Monday evening next, licenan will be assisted by Jack Macdonald, and a lively spectacle it will be to see these two star artists amicably "put up their hands" with each other.

Heenan made considerable money while abroad, but "spent it," as he says, "like a Major." All told, his earnings in England and Ireland amounted to nearly $35,000. For four sparring exhibitions, given in four towns in Ireland, he received the portly sum of $7,500, but it's all gone—"glided smoothly away like the closing hours of a good man's life"—and now he wants more.

We understand it to be Mr. Heenan's intention that these exhibitions shall be divested of the roughness that has hitherto attached to them; and to accomplish that object, they will be presented in connection with other entertainments that may be witnessed by the "fair sex," and by those nicely got-up people who don't like to have disagreeable things "come betwixt the wind and their nobility." o speak by the card, observes:

Sad Condition of Appairs in Mexico.—
The Tampico Prisma, of the 13th, announcing the arrival of Miramon at the city of Mexico, after his rout near Guadalajara, adds the following as the substance of latest letters from the capital:

"It would appear that the capital stood in fear of some new movement on the part of the Liberals. The jails are full of political prisoners; new places of confinement, indeed, have to be erected. Aiready several convents have been converted into prisons. The agitation in political circles is very great. Commercial houses begin to totter to their fall. The rich are alarmed. The levy of a new loan is feared. The clergy even are half frightexed. In a word, the situation of Mexico daily grows worse. The fall of the great banking-house of Jecker, Bermegillo & Torre, has brought a multitude of families to want, and this hard-pressed reaction must ultimately be their ruin as well as that of the houses which continue to sustain it."

ouses which continue to sustain it. Company, a quantity sufficient, it is thought, for the completion of the road. The con-tract was closed on Monday last, and the shipments of iron will be commenced as soon as an order can reach the contractor.

The streak of pay dirt is quite thick, and it is impossible to estimate the amount of gold that may be taken therefrom."

At an examination in the primary department of the Pittsfield school, the listeners were "brought down" by the answer of a juvenile, when asked of what use whales were. One little Miss replied that they were "good for hooped skirts."

LITERATEURS IN EUROPE.—A letter from Florence says that Mr. and Mrs. Rober and Browning, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Story, Mrs. Crawford, and Walter Savage Landor, have formed a party and would spend the summer at Sienna.

danother fraudulent land title. The case is given as follows:

The Supreme Court at Sacramento has reverred its own decision of 1856, and pronounced the Felex Simil, title 1857, and pronounced the Felex Simil, title 1857, and pronounced the Felex Simil, title 1858, and 1859.

H. Hosts of people were sick in those days, and extrawagant prices charged. So, no wonder, when he brought in flish till, it was a redeemable, refused to cash it. Our people had to wait, why not Doctor Smith? And if he did not choose to wait, how could he help himself? The speculators got boild of the borip, and when the city still refused to come down, the Sheriff came down instead, and some 14,000 acres of land, the city's propeerty, was sold till the judgments that had been obtained were all satisfied.

The city authorities protested and so did many cilizens, that the sale amounted to nothing—that the property was not liable to execution. But, the speculators took the within its limits, which were held in trust for the public use, and were not under either the old or new government the subject of seigure or sale by execution.

This settles the fact that the title obtained by the Sheriff's sales under the Peter Smith judgments were worth no more than so much waste paper. If the decision had stopped there, the city would have been suddenly rich again; but it proceeds to affirm the validity of the Van Ness Ordinance, under which the city gave away to actual squatters many acres of the very land that the Peter Smith title claimed. So that, though the city gains no great deal, the squatters gain infinitely by the action of the Supreme Court. The lawyers say that the Court can not, in after years, go back of this decision, and they tell us why. If it can and should, then we unto us! We are in a deeper and mustier muddle than ever. If not, a new era has dawned upon us. The three great ghosts that haunted every homestead—Limantour, Santillan and Peter Smith—all permanently laid, and nothing is left but a few such scaly, and obviously fraudulent, claims as the Sherreback, which scarcely frightens any body now.

POPULATION AND REQUIREMENT OF THE OHIO PENITENTIARY.—The number now confined in this institution is 969. The steady increase of the number of criminals in the State of Ohio, says the State Journal, and the imadequate accommodation which the State at present possesses for their reception and retention, calls loudly upon our legislators to provide by law for the building of a new prison, as was contemplated by the creation of a commission for the selection of an eligible site last winter. It is to be hoped that one of the first acts of the Legislature on its reassembling next winter, will be to pass a law to that effect. Should an epidemic visit our State Prison in its present crowded state, the consequences would be awful, for at present both the hospital and chapel are turned into sleeping apartments, which have to be guarded during the whole of the night to prevent the escape of convicts. And even when the present improvements shall have been completed, and the whole of the appropriation expended in the enlargement of cells, &c., it will fail to accommodate the whole mumber.

Johannesberg, &c. Bordeaux wines include Chateux Margaux, St. Jullien, La Rose, &c. The reason for this is very obvious. The same grape will make totally different wines in different places. And again, in most countries the grapes are mixed. A wine made from a mixture of Catawba, Isabella, and Warren, could not be called by either of those names. At present there are 100° different Catawba wines, no two of them alike.

Does Employed for Agricultural Purposes.—Edward Sydnor, of Hanover, Va., has two pointer dogs which can worm store tobacco in a day than any two hands he owns. The dogs run along the furrows and show the greatest sagneity in detecting worms, finding them by the scent and eye. They never injure the plants, and where the field hands overlook the insects the dogs are sure to find them. The animals devour the insects cagerly, and never give up the chase until they become completely gorged.

The Great Eastern to Return Home With a Cargo of Cotton.—The New York Horald understands that arrangements are on the tapis with the directors of the Great Eastern to take her to Norfolk, Va., previous to her return to England, and there load her with 30,000 bales of cotton for the British market. It is not stated where this cotton is to come from. The freight on cotton being a farthing, British money, per pound, or about half a cent, this cargo would amount to little more than $60,000 freight money.

The Arkansas River at last accounts was reported extremely low.

Another warm day was yesterday. To say that such weather is cinervaling and prostrating, is to convey no adequate idea of its intensity, and its soorching and debilitating efficit upon every thing and every body within rusch of its operation. Buring the past two days the thermometer has figured high up into the "sination," with remarkable consistency, and man, in like ratio, has "let down' in the scale of earthly comfort.
